Recent Announcements

Connecting communities in BC’s Interior: The Interior Health Authority and the University of British Columbia have launched a partnership to improve mental health services in rural and remote communities. The initiative includes a telehealth program and the creation of a mobile mental health team to provide support in underserved areas.

Advancing Health Equity Learning Collaborative

The University of Victoria, in partnership with the BC Ministry of Health, has launched a new program to address health disparities in marginalized communities. The Collaborative aims to develop innovative approaches to improve health equity through research, education, and community engagement.

On the Road with Bill

Bill and team...-

It’s not the statistics that make us feel small.

It’s when you have one of the numbers.

Medicaid Leader interview: Nicole Truhe

What role do you see in the future of Medicaid leaders?

“Medicaid leaders play a critical role in bridging the gap between policy and practice. They must be proactive in advocating for evidence-based solutions and ensuring that Medicaid programs are sustainable and accessible for the populations they serve.”

Get Involved!

Join our mailing list for updates on upcoming events, meetings, and other important announcements. Sign up today at https://www.medicaidleaders.org/

Visuals:

- A photo of Bill on the road with his team.
- A graphic with a statistic related to Medicaid.
- A header image featuring Nicole Truhe with the text “Medicaid Leader interview: Nicole Truhe.”